

Commission on Strategic Development
Committee on Governance and Political Development

Strategic Issues that May be Discussed at Future Meetings

The Government has listened to a wide range of views on the strategic issues that should be discussed by this Committee and would like Members to consider whether the following items may be discussed at future meetings:

- (a) Creating a small number of politically appointed positions in the Government to do political work
- (b) Grooming political talent
- (c) Development of political parties
- (d) Review of the role, function and structure of the District Councils
- (e) Public sector reform
- (f) Promoting public policy research
- (g) Promoting national and civic education

2. Members are welcome to suggest other items for discussion.

Secretariat to the Commission on Strategic Development
November 2005