Chief Executive's Policy Unit

The Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China

Chief Executive's Policy Unit, The Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region

The Chief Executive (CE) proposed during his election campaign and elaborated in his Policy Address (PA) in October 2022 that a new CEPU will be established to enhance the Government's capabilities in research and advocacy on long-term and strategic issues. Apart from conducting in-depth studies and analyses on Mainland policies and developments as well as international trends and reporting the outcome to CE; CEPU will continue facilitating internal deliberations to assist the Government in formulating forward-looking policies.

CEPU has commenced operation since 28 December 2022 and performs the following key functions –

- a) conducting in-depth studies and analyses on Mainland policies and developments, as well as global developments and trends, and assessing how Hong Kong can keep up with these developments;
- b) conducting forward-looking research on strategic and long-term issues;
- c) co-ordinating the preparation of CE's annual PA and tracking the implementation of PA initiatives;
- d) providing research and secretariat support to the CE's Council of Advisers;
- e) providing internal briefings on Mainland and global developments to promote experience and knowledge sharing;
- f) assessing public opinions for CE's reference through various means including web-based data analytics, opinion polls, focus group discussions, as well as networking and dialogue with stakeholders including commentators, think-tanks, academia and other leaders; and
- g) encouraging policy research community to conduct evidence-based research related to key policy issues through measures including administering public policy research funding schemes.

香港特別行政區政府特首政策組

行政長官在進行競選活動期間提出並在其2022年10月發表的《施政報告》中闡述，將成立一個新的特首政策組，提升政府對長遠和策略性議題的研究和倡議能力。除了深入研究和分析內地政策和發展及國際形勢，向行政長官匯報外，特首政策組同時亦會繼續促進內部研討，協助政府制訂具前瞻性的政策。

特首政策組於2022年12月28日成立，主要職能包括—

- 深入研究和分析內地政策和發展，以及國際動態和形勢，並評估香港可如何應對有關發展；
- 就策略性及長遠議題進行具前瞻性的研究；
- 統籌行政長官年度《施政報告》的預備工作，並監察落實《施政報告》各項措施；
- 為特首顧問團提供研究和秘書處支援；
- 安排內部簡介會介紹內地和全球發展，以加強經驗和知識交流；
- 通過不同途徑評估民意，包括網上數據分析、民意調查、聚焦小組討論，以及與持份者（如評論員、智庫、學術界和其他領袖）聯繫和對話，供行政長官參考；以及
- 藉管理公共政策研究資助計劃等措施，鼓勵政策研究羣體就主要政策議題進行實證為本的研究。

National Academy of Economic Strategy, CASS

National Academy of Economic Strategy, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences

The National Academy of Economic Strategy, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences (CASS), was formerly known as the “Institute of Finance and Trade Economics (IFTE), CASS”, which was founded in 1978 (firstly known as the “Institute of Finance, Trade and Materials Economics, CASS”). In December 2011, as a major initiative under the Innovation Program of Philosophy and Social Sciences, CASS restructured IFTE to establish a comprehensive and innovative national research institute for economic strategy—the National Academy of Economic Strategy (NAES), CASS.

NAES's primary mission is to research issues of overall, forward-looking, and strategic importance in public finance, trade, services, and related fields. Its research areas encompass Marxist economic sciences, public finance, taxation, international trade, finance, market circulation, urban development and real estate, leisure and tourism, and economic development strategies.

NAES comprises two functional departments: the General Office and the Office of Academic Research; ten research departments: Research Department of Marxist Economic Sciences, Research Department of Public Finance, Research Department of Taxation, Research Department of Fiscal Audit, Research Department of International Trade and Economics, Research Department of Market Circulation and Consumption, Research Department of Service Economy and Internet Development, Research Department of Urban and Real Estate Economics, Research Department of Tourism and Leisure, Research Department of Economic Development Strategy; three editorial offices: Finance & Trade Economics, Financial Minds, and China Finance and Economic Review; and an academic archive.

NAES oversees two national social organisations: the Cost Research Society of China and the China Marketing Association. It also manages four CASS-level non-entity research centres: the Public Finance and Taxation Research Centre, the Centre for City and Competitiveness Studies, the Economic Policy Research Centre, and the Tourism Research Centre. Additionally, it administers one NAES-level non-entity research centre: the Credit Research Centre.

Lau Chor Tak Institute of Global Economics and Finance, The Chinese Institute of Hong Kong

Lau Chor Tak Institute of Global Economics and Finance (IGEF) was established in January 2010 with an aim to contribute conceptual and policy ideas to the opening up of China's financial system. Drawing on the educational and research strengths and resources of the Department of Economics and the Faculty of Business Administration of The Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK), the Institute aspires to make contributions to the modernization of China's monetary and financial systems by advancing new ways of thinking, making policy recommendations and identifying new paths for liberalisation. Through research, IGEF delivers conceptual and policy ideas to the opening up of China's post-financial-crisis financial system. CUHK has a long history of taking initiatives to build bridges between China and the West following its mission "to combine tradition with modernity; to bring together China and the West". The University is consistently ranked among Asia's best institutions by international surveys of research output in economics and finance. The Institute also offers training programmes to central bankers and regulators of non-G20 countries to enhance the knowledge and expertise of participants in new developments and ideas in global finance and the post-crisis banking regulatory framework.

SUPPLY CHAIN INSTITUTE

HKUST Li & Fung Supply Chain Institute, The Hong Kong University of Science and Technology

The HKUST Li & Fung Supply Chain Institute (Institute) accelerates the creation, global dissemination, and practical application of new knowledge for managing tomorrow's supply chains.

The Institute seeks to develop local and international talent in supply chain management through teaching, professional development, and exchanges at specialist conferences. It brings together leaders in industry, academia, and the public sector in a new collaboration for research, executive education and practice focused on innovation in business models, sustainable supply chain design, process re-engineering, and the rapid adoption of new technologies. These outcomes are vital in addressing the need for visionary, innovative supply chain management in the face of rapid technological advancements, disruption from geopolitical tensions, and concerns related to sustainability and climate.

Jointly established by HKUST and supply chain industry leader Li & Fung, the Institute brings together research excellence and industry expertise in supply chain management to drive real-world impact across the Greater Bay Area, Greater China, Asia, and globally, while contributing to Hong Kong's development as a multinational supply chain management centre.

Mr Zhu Shihui is the founder of Vital Technology Group and the actual controller of the A-share listed companies Optics Technology (300489) and Vital Deep Technology (600641). He was born in March 1967 in Bengbu, Anhui Province. He graduated from Guangdong University of Foreign Studies with a master's degree in 1993.

In 1995, Mr Zhu founded Vital Technology Group. With nearly 30 years of experience in the scattered metals industry, he has developed the Group into the world's largest photoelectric high-tech enterprise with the most complete industrial chain. The Group comprises six major industrial clusters: materials technology, photoelectric technology, micro-electric technology, semiconductor technology, medical technology, and scientific instruments. It has a global presence with operations in Germany, South Korea, the United States, Belgium, Spain, and Singapore.

Mr Zhu has led Vital Technology Group to continuously achieve breakthroughs in key technology areas, successfully breaking the core technology monopolies of European and American enterprises on multiple occasions. In recent years, he has vigorously introduced a corporate development model of "industrial strategy + capital empowerment", continuously increased R&D investment in the semiconductor field, and fully advanced the Group's international development process.

Vital Technology Group was listed on the Fortune China 500 and the Fortune China Technology 50, and was ranked among China's Top 500 Private Enterprises. Additionally, its subsidiaries, Vital Materials and Vital Electronic, have been consistently ranked on the Hurun Global Unicorn list for several consecutive years. Mr Zhu currently holds several prominent positions, including: Council Member of the International STDA Association, Council Member of the China Non-Ferrous Metals Industry Association, and Vice Chairman of the China Indium Bismuth Germanium Association (under the China Non-Ferrous Metals Industry Association).

朱世會先生，先導科技集團創始人，A股上市公司光智科技（300489）和先導基電（600641）實控人。1967年3月生，祖籍安徽蚌埠市，1993年畢業於廣州外國語學院，獲碩士學位。

朱世會先生於1995年創辦廣東先導稀材股份有限公司，在稀散金屬行業深耕30年，使先導科技集團成為目前全球規模最大、產業鏈最齊備的光電子高科技企業。集團旗下設有材料科技、光電子科技、微電子科技、半導體科技、醫療科技以及科學儀器六大產業群，產業體系涵蓋德國、韓國、美國、比利時、西班牙、新加坡等世界各地。

朱世會先生帶領先導科技集團在關鍵技術領域不斷取得新突破，並多次成功打破歐美企業核心技術壟斷。近年來，朱世會先生大力引入「產業佈局+資本賦能」的企業發展模式，持續加大在半導體領域的研發投入，全力推進企業的國際化發展進程。先導科技集團2025年入選了《財富》雜誌中國500強、《財富》中國科技50強、中國民營企業500強，旗下的先導稀材、先導電科連續多年入選《胡潤》全球獨角獸榜。朱世會先生現擔任國際硒碲發展協會理事、中國有色金屬工業協會理事、中國有色金屬工業協會鈾鉍銻協會副會長等多項職務。
